Hi (fname) - we're sorry we missed you.

We had some major issues last year - and have since upleveled our email game... but we didn't work out the bugs in time to catch readers like you dropping off our list.

Whether you got the same Daily Horoscope 4 times in a row or we accidentally stopped sending them (We are really, really sorry), we'd love to have you back! We get your concerns...

“I get too many emails.”

We're all getting a lot of emails these days - and we want to make sure you get only the ones you absolutely want! You can choose to subscribe to only one email per day - visit our preference center to pare down and focus on just your Daily Horoscope...

“I'm kind of bored with my Daily Horoscope.”

Try one of our other daily emails!

Daily Tarot - Tarot is one of our hottest topics! Whether you're interested in a daily card reading or getting the latest Tarot spread, we deliver a daily dose right to your inbox!

“OK but Astrology Answers, I just don’t like reading”

Fair enough. If you don’t want to read your daily horoscope, try our Daily horoscope videos with Debra Silverman, renowned astrologer or the Weekly Forecast with Terence Guardino. (Included in every daily email)
